

Pair-Point Corporation Art Electroliers

JF YOU have one gift of an unusual nature to make, we know of nothing that will serve the purpose as nicely as one of the new Pair-Point Corporation art electroliers we are now showing. These come in hand painted and cut glass models. A glance at our windows will easily convince you that nothing ever shown in El Paso equals these electroliers.

All the Newest Designs in Pair-Point Corporation Cut Glass

IN addition to art electroliers, we are now showing everything known in L cut glass from these celebrated makers. Our securing this agency is particularly fortunate for our customers as it enables them to give something in cut glass of extraordinary beauty. Notwithstanding this is the highest type of cut glass known, you will find that prices are not in the least ex-

SPECIAL NOTE. In addition to this new arrival in cut glass, we call special attention to the fact that we have also a complete new stock of the celebrated Tuthill cut glass, which has always been a favorite with our customers.

Mail Orders

We ask our out-of-town customers to place their orders just as soon as possible. In this connection, we want to say that nowhere in El Paso will out-of-town people

Parties

Friday afternoon Misses Mand and Delia Kiefer delightfully entertained in honor of Miss Amy Schutz. The afternoon was spent at games. The guests were requested, first to dress clothes pins with pink and white crepe paper as a bride and her maids. The guest of honor dressed the bride and the others the maids. This caused a great deal of merriment. They were then asked to itemize upon a card, a bride's trousseau, being limited to $250 to spend.

After the games, delicious refersi-

After the garnes, delleious refersh-

After the games, delicious referaliments of two courses were served. The table was decorated in pink and waite.
Crepe paper was draped over the table and in the center stood a vase of pink carnations. Each guest found her place at the table by her doll, which was placed at her cover. Little Dorotly, Danielson and Cora Slater delighted the "grownups" with their sweet singing.

singing.

The guest of honor was presented with a lovely picture—the subject, being, "Cupid Awake," When she threw the boquet of pink carnation, Miss Emma Hoffman was the lucky one to catch it, and tradition says, she will be the next bride.

The invited guests were: Mesdames Oliver A. Danielson, H. L. Mitchell, J. G. Miller, S. A. Vaughan, Alfred Schutz, Harry Schutz, Misses Amy Schutz, Verda Barnes, Jenevie Anderson, Rachel Livingston, Emma Hoffman, Hallie Irvin, Anita Kranzthor, Rhoda Albre.

Miss Winifred Roe is entertaining this afternoon for Miss Helen Newell, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Keltner, 2924

Miss Elizabeth Page entertained on Wednesday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. W. Luthie, of Alpine, Texas, who is vikiting her sinter, Mrs. James Hibbert, in this city.

Plans for the Children's Xmas.

Plans for the Children's Xmas.
One of the nicest gifts you can possibly give a girl or boy is an Ansco "Buster Brown" Camera.
This camera is simple of operation, but makes perfect pictures. The gift of a camera will solve the amusement problem of a reatless or tonely child. There is literally no end to the possibilities of a camera. Besides the actual taking of pictures, there is a great deal of interesting work involved in the developing and printing of the films, all of which can be done by the amiteur. We have a complete stock of Buster Brown and other Ansco cameras, also carry everything in camera supplies.

also carry everything in camera supplies. Scott White & Co., Mills Buildfind a service equal to ours.

Alameda street.

Shop Early

We have already received a most favorable response to our suggestion in regard to early shopping. Complete Holiday stocks make it possible to shop here with the greatest satisfaction.

Cards

"The mere thought of buying a diamond should suggest Silberberg's

Women's Organizations

Mrs. Ben Swatt entertained with a bridge and lotte party on Thursday afternoon in honor of her sisters. Mrs. Andrew Roth, of Chicago, III., and Miss Fannie Baron. The bridge prizes were wen by Mrs. Martin Zielonka and Miss. Bernice Wichenhauser. The lotte prizes were wen by Mrs. Sam Swatt and Mrs. Sam Iefkovitz. The consolution fell to Miss Anna Swalt.

Sam Lefkovitz. The consolution fell to Miss Anna Swalt.

After the game, three courses of tempting refreahments were served. Those present were: Mesdames Andrew Roth, Martin Zielonka, J. Zellman, Simon Turk, J. Winners, P. Parkins, L. Horowitz, S. Eckstone, Paul Linso, Chas. Givens, J. Kauffman, N. Lapowski, D. Schwartz, S. Lefkovitz, L. Swatt, S. Swatt, Karl Hockenheimer, L. Goldsmith, C. Harie, Misses Fannie Baron, Vetta Baron, B. Merkin, Anna Swatt, Grare Mayer, Harriet Schwarz, Stelfa Levy, Erms Jacobs, Bernice Wielenhauser, Sadie Lefkovita.

One of the most delightful affairs of he week was the bridge party given in Friday afternoon by Mrs Clarence Pickrell at the Toitee club for her S. Pickrell at the Toltee club for her guests, Mrs. Hal Mangum and Mrs. J. L. Cartright. There were about 110 guests present and the tables for bridge were placed in the ball room of the club, which was very prettily decorated in potted plants and ferna. Music by an orchestra was enjoyed during the games and two delicious courses of refreshments were zerved. Mrs. L. G. Witherspoon won the prize for the highest score and received a handsome goldleaf farn basket. Mrs. Mangum and Mrs. Cartwright wre presented with goldleaf vases.

Mrs. A. P. Averill, president of the Woman's club, will be "at home" to from three to five, at her home, on the corner of Boulevard and Prospect streets.

A director's meeting of the Woman's club will be held on Tuesday morning. December 3, at 10 oclock, at the home of Mrs. W. R. Brown.

The Euterpean society will meet on Monday night at the First Christian church at 8 oclock. A splendid program has been arranged.

Doll wigs. All styles. Elite Pariors, 216 Texas Street.

The regular club day meeting of the oman's club will be held Wednesday Woman's club will be held Wednesday afternoon. December 4. In the auditorium of the Lamar school. Public school day will be observed, and the program will be in charge of Miss Emna Lee Lott, as follows:

Cherus. High School Glee club. Selection. primary grades. Composition, Julia Morse, Vilas chool.

chool.
Song, Marion Howe, Sunset school.
Texas history topics, Winston Me-canell, Mesa school.
Selection, by kindergarten Sunset school.

The girls of the eighth grade of the Lamar school will be ushers and will meet the club members at the Montana street entrance.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will meet at the home of Mrs. E. C. French, on Montana alrest, on Monday afternoon, December 3, Instead of Monday, December 2, as previously

Mrs. A. P. Averill, president of the Voman's club, will be "at home" to Voman's club, will be "at home" to

A director's meeting of the Woman's club will be held on Tuesday morning. December 3 at 10 oclock, at the home of Mrs. W. E. Brown.

The Euterpean society will meet on Monday night at the First Christian church at 8 oclock. A splendid program has been arranged.

aults cleaned, pressed. Wright.

Get the Home In Readiness for the Holidays

NEW furniture will be needed to put the home in Holiday attire, and nowhere in El Paso can better selections be made than here. For next week we mention especially-

Holiday $20.75	d
$21.50 Mission hall tree; Holiday	$
Spe- $16.00	d S
$43.00 Mission bed Davenport (in-	$
eluding mattress); $32.50	31
$2.00 fumed oak tabouretie:	S
Holiday 01 FO	Ĥ
Special $1.50	S

$27.50 fumed oak library table

	$32.50 day Sp	mahogany	$24
)	$33.50	Holiday	$25	rinces
)-	$22.50 Holiday Special	birdseye	$17
	$35.00 Holiday Special	satin fini	$19

Brass Beds 25% Off

Next week we will give a discount of 25 percent on all brass beds. Our stock of brass beds is the largest and most complete in El Paso, and prices range from $15.00 to $105.00. Next week any brass bed at a discount of 25 percent.

CHARITY BALL NETS WOMEN WORKERS $1200; MORE FUNDS ARE NEEDED

HE Charity ball was a success financially as well as socially, and the total amount received so far from the sale of tickets is now ever $1200. There are still some tickets that have not been reported on and the officers of the Charity association equest that the remittance be made for these as soon as possible. The pre-

Dinners and Luncheons

termon's new car

Miss Clars Hague entertained with a Thanksgiving dinner on Thursday night at her home. The table was dec-orated in red and green, using American beauty roses and red candidated inghted. The personnel of the party was: Misses Julia Coldwell, Alleen and Judyn Hague, Capt. Thos. Corcoran, Lieuts. Robert Skelton, Abbott Boone and J. Brinck.

Dances

El Pasoans Returning

Mrs. G. H. Lund has returned from short visit to her brother in Chi-

Dr. C. T. Race has returned from a prolonged visit with his sister in Ken-suits cleaned, pressed, Wright.

Thanksgiving

every garment must be fresh, clean, well pressed.

Coats, overcoats, suits, furs, gowns, etc., that you wish to use will look like

Faultless

Cleaning

last season's garments

701 Texas.

we can put new life into.

Our service may cost more, but it's worth it. Spots don't return in a few days wear of the garment as they are bound to do from cheaper work.

HOLMES DYEING AND CLEANING WORKS

218 Mesa Avenue, Tel. 786, 787, 791.

new if sent to us for tucky.

No Matter Where You Go

beauty roses and red

Conducted by MISS HALLIE IRVIN

Telephones 2020 or 2010, day; and 345, night.

public achools came into the churity offlice Wednesday. The charity is very grateful to the teachers, children and parents for the great amount of much needed supplies that came in, such as fruit, vegetables, canned goods and clothing. eiothing.
The following schools sent donations:
Mess, Lamar, Vilus, Sunset, Alamo and Alta Vista.
All of the charity office force worked for these as soon as possible. The presumption is that all tickets not already returned have been retained and that the checks will be sent for them. These should be malled to Mrs. Boxwell Loomis.

While over $1200 has been realized so far, it will not meet the demands until next Thanksgiving. The month, to $600, and the members of the layeness of the charity is from $400 to $600, and the members of the security board are trying to plan some way now to make it possible to carry on their great work.

The Charity association wishes $0 thank publicly the following firms and individuals for their generosity in donard and so freely to the charity ball in order that all modey received from the sale of the tickets might be clear profit.

Empire Gown

Fine tucking is used in a novel man-Fine tucking is used in a novel man-ner in this gown, the effect being that of a short sieseved belove, fastened by the bow in front.

The front is of lawn, hand embroid-ered, with exclets at the top, through which is run a ribbon. The bands of rose insertion in fine lawn are under-

Mrs. W. M. Garrett, of the "Georgeette" apartments, gave a Thanksgiving dinner to a few special friends, the occasion also being to celebrate her husband's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Hill entertained at an elegantly appointed din-ner on Thanksgiving, Miss L Allen, of Fort Worth; Oliver Carr and J. S. P. Gaffield were among the guests

Church Affairs

The Westminster Missionary society, f Highland Park, met Eriday after-oen, November 29, at the home of Mrs. L. P. Fennell, at 332 Eric street. An E. P. Fennell, at 332 Eric street. An interesting program was presided over by the pastor, Rev. John E. Abbott, the subject for the afternoon being "Brazil." A paper was read and short talks were given on the subject. The guests of the society were: Rev. John E. Abbott, Rev. C. R. Wolemdorf and M. N. Shive. At the close of the program refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mesdames J. H. Logan A. M. Smith, R. A. Barnes, J. H. Hamilton, S. D. Robinson, L. McIntosh, E. A. Dawson, J. R. Spatham, J. G. Lowman, J. L. McKnight, E. Ragsdale, F. R. Hage, E. B. Elfers, H. F. Renener, F. H. Hannay, J. D. Roberts, E. P. Fennell. The Gles club met at Miss Edith Bailey's home on Friday evening at 1.30 oclock. The house was decorated in the club's colors of purple and white, Refreshments of a salad course were served. The first part of the evening was enloyed by dancing. Those present nere Misses Esther Figuroa, Nettle Sawyers, Mattie Clark, Myrtie Langford, Mary E. Bailey, Edith Bailey, Mrs. T. Bailey: Messrs. Willie Anderson, Jesus Duran, Benton Thedford, Theodors Werle, Oscar Black, Jack Stevenson and Hugh Sawyers.

Fonnell.

* * * *

The Missionary union of the city will hold its meeting at Westminster church on Thursday afternoon, December 5, at three oclock. The program will appear the first of the week in the paper.

St. Clement's Men's club and Social club combined will present "the sensational and mystifying murder trial,"

"The Caze of Jennie Brice." a mock trial, at Kendrick hall, corner of Montain and Campbell streets, Tuesday evening at eight oclock.

Out Of Town Visitors E. S. Thayer and wife, of Dallas, are nere on a visit with friends.

Frank P. Jones, of the El Paso Bank and Trust company, was here to spend Thanksgiving with friends. Mr. Jones is located at Silver City, N. M., although an active member of the El Paso bank-

Frank Ciark, of East Las Vegas, N. M., is at the Sheldon, having come from New Mexico Friday on business. Miss Rachel Livingston is a guest of Miss Jenevic Anderson.

Mrs. W. M. Oliver, of Paducah, Ky., is here visiting her brother, Charles Parker.

Mrs. Paul Ginther, accompanied by Mrs. A. H. Allison, came in from Santa Rosalia Friday; they are stop-ping at the Sheldon for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sunderland, of Marshall, returned home after spend-ing a few weeks in town with friends.

Mrs. A. H. Emmett, of Dallas, is at the Pase Del Norte for a few days.

George McNell, of Denton, Texas, has returned home from a short visit with his daughters. Mrs. George Harper and Mrs. Hadley D. Sandsrs, in this city.

El Pasoans Away

Word has been received of the birth of a son in Los Angeles, Cal. to Mr. and Mrs. John Beresford, on Tuesday. November 16. The little fellow's name is John C. Beresford, Mrs. Beresford was formerly Miss Adele Li tell, of this city, and was for years employed in the local postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Albright have gone to Marshall and New Orleans to spend six weeks with relatives.

Receptions

Mrs. C. H. Baum is entertaining this afternoon with a reception in honor of Mrs. Mary Atkinson, Mrs. Charles Davis and Mrs. John A. Covede.

Mrs. L. N. Washburn and Miss Anna Washburn are entertaining this afternoon with a reception, complimentary to Mrs. F. L. Torres and Miss Lemire Nebekes.

Weddings

A. Frederick for the music from the field infantry band. The Thanksgiving offerings from the

One of the prettiest of fall home weddings was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents at 1909 East Rio Grande street. Tuesday afternoon at 2 oclock, when Miss Lenna Mitchell, roungest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mitchell, was married to W. M. Kelly, of Ware, Texas, "a prominent transfer man of that point," by Bev. C. L. Overstreet.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for California to be gone a month. The bride was becomingly gowned in a navy blue traveling suit with champagne vest and black and white veives hat.

On their return trip they will visit friends and their parents have for a few days; then they will go to Waco to make their home there.

Only members of the family and Masters Paul, Rufus and Charlle Harvey, special boy friends of the bride, were present.

Masters Paul, Rufus and Charlle Harvey, special boy friends of the bride, were present.

On Mondox evening preceding the welding, the bride's parents, assisted by their married daughter. Mrs. W. M. Garrett, entertained the bridal party with a nine course dinner at their home on Rio Grande street. The living room was tastily decorated with large pink and white chrysanthemums. The dining room was beautifully decorated with pink and white carnations, the dining table being specially pretty, with a large was of pink carnations and forms in the center, resting on a heautiful center piece of the same design.

Those present were Miss Lenna Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miller, Arthur Miller and W. M. Keily.

Thanksgiving day Adolph Roth and Miss Fannie Baron were united in marriage by rabbi Martin Zielonka at the home of the bride's sister and brother. Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Swatt. The house was most attractively decorated. Ferns and red and white carnations were used. The ceremony was performed under a large white horseshoe, which was erected at one side of the room. Ferns and baskels of flowers were interspersed here and there, making a very pretty sights.

The bride, who is a very pretty girl.

best man.

The bride, who is a very pretty girl, were a gown of white charmeuse en traine, trimmed with point lace. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and ferns. The groom's gift to her, a diamond bracelet, was the only leaveler were.

her, a dismond bracelet, with jewelry worn.

The maid of honor wore a white chiffon gown over yellow charmense, triumed in spangles.

Mrz. B. L. Swatt, sister of the bride, also wore a white charmense with also wore a white charmense with

After the ceremony, a delightful luncheon was served at the house by Mr. and Mrs. Ben L. Swatt. Later a dinner was served at the Hotel Paso del Norte, and Mr. and Mrs. Rath, then took the train for New Orleans, La., before going to Chicago, Ill., where they will make their future home.

The bride wore a traveling suit of blue cloth with a large picture hat to match. At the Paso del Norte dinner I. Welss was the host,

was the host,

Thanksgiving day, at five oclock in the afternoon, Thomas B. Milam and Miss Stella Brunner were married at St. Clement's church by the pastor, Rev. Henry Easter. Only the bride's family were present. Mrs. Milam is the daughter of John Brunner, of this city, and is popular with the younger social set. Mr. Milam is in charge of the wireless station at Washington park.

A dinner was served at the Brunner home after the wedding. The dining rocm was decorated in smilax and roses and culy members of the bride's family were present.

Fred D. Craig and Miss Offic Gray-son were married on November 25 in the study of the First Christian church by the paster, Rev. Perry J. Rice. The bride is from Canon, Texas, and the groom from Tueson, Ariz.

St Clement's Guild will hold their Bazar and turkey dinner at Jackson's, 105 S. El Paso St., Tuesday, Dec. 2rd. suits cleaned, pressed. Wright.

The One Safe Plan

Need Glasse's?

> Ask Segall

> Segall Optical

230 Mesa Ave.

About El Pasoans

Mrs. Louis Holaman, wife of custom inspector Holaman, is receivering from a month's illness.

Miss Frances Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs A. G. Foster, of this city, is attending school in Brooklyn, N. Y., at Frait university. Miss Foster has just had the honor bestowed upon her of president of the Southern club, which is a colloge organization there.

Capt. C. C. Henderson is slightly lill at his home on Montana street.

Mrs. C. F. Elliott spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. S. E. Patton at her new home on Douglas street.

Walter Curtis is able to be up after an illness of two months.

Mrs. H. L. Aldrich has rented her hungalow, on Portirlo Diaz street, and taken an apartment for the winter at the "Evelyn."

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Clifford are being congratulated on the birth of a son at Hotel Dieu November 26.

S. Engelking assistant United States district attorney, is preparing to move to San Antonio, Tex., where he is now an active member of the firm of Engelking & James.

Showers

Mrs. W. W. Evans will entertain with linen shower on Monday afternoon,

BY HOLIDAY BUYING

New York, N. Y., Nov. 10.—Brad-streets today says:

Trade continues to move at a swift pace, but owing to improvements in re-tall distribution, the returns are in-vested with a greater degree of uni-formity than was heretofore visible. Jobbers, as well as wholesale dealers, are, if anything, more active, while re-tail trade has been stimulated by colder weather, enlarged crop movement and expansion in holiday buying.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending November 28 were for the week ending November 28 were 241, against 248 last week.

Phone 343 for good cleaning.

CANDY SPECIAL DELICIOUS COCOANUT TEA BISCUITS Made With Fresh Cocoanut 20c per Pound

SATURDAY ONLY

Only 20c Per Day

Will pay for one of these excellent pianos. The Seybold Piano is an instrument of quality. It is good value at the price it is sold for. Quality at the right price is wise economy, because you do not alone get proper value for your money, but also something which will give pleasure and satisfaction.

$250.00 to $500.00

Fred'k G. Billings 2nd Floor 2141-2 Texas